Mt. Pilatus

Mount Stoos in the heart of Switzerland and high above Lake Lucerne is a beautiful mountain location with great views, cosy restaurants and comfortable mountain railways. The car-free village and its fantastic nature can be reached by the world's steepest funicular railroad.

CENTRALLY LOCATED WITH GREAT PRICE VALUE

The central location of Schwyz enables short travel distances from lots of different regions across Europe. Lucerne, Zurich and Einsiedeln are very close and therefore can be fitted in a bunch of tour programs, for a nice daytrip to the mountains of Schwyz. Large parking for busses and cars located beneath the funicular railroad station and the souvenir-shop.

SPECTACULAR ACCESS

The world's steepest funicular railroad brings you to the car-free village on 1300 masl. This new mountain railway has an inclination of 110% in maximum. The four separated guest cabins are automatically and always balanced out. After an easy walk of approx. 12 minutes you have two options for reaching our peak at 1922 masl:

- ride easily on comfortable and covered chairlifts (20 minutes)
- be sporty and hike up (approx. 2 hours)

BREATHTAKING VIEWS

Regardless whether by railway or foot – on the panorama viewing platform and photo-point of the Fronalpstock the eye will wander from one alpine summit to the next. You enjoy breathtaking views on more than 10 lakes and numerous mountain peaks, towards France and Germany, as well as vertically down to the most historical place in Switzerland, the Rütli. This is the place where the Confederation of Switzerland originally was founded back in 1291.
